Title	Policy on Personal Investment & Trading of Securities	Revision no.	6
Initial approved date	30 October 2011	Last reviewed date	5 December 2024 Board meeting no.6/2024

1. OVERVIEW

This Policy on Personal Investment and Trading of Securities (“Policy”) has been established to govern the investment and trading in securities by the Directors, members of Rating Committee and employees in RAM Holdings Berhad and its subsidiaries (collectively termed as “RAM Group” or “RAM”).

All Directors, Rating Committee members and employees are required to conduct their personal investment activities and securities trading in a manner that is lawful and that avoids conflict between their personal interests and those of the RAM Group and its clients, so as to promote stakeholders’ confidence in the RAM Group.

This Policy has been specifically designed to raise awareness and minimize any potential breach of prohibitions against using Privileged Information, as well as to avoid misunderstandings or suspicion that may arise regarding employees’ personal investment and trading activities while in possession of non-public, price-sensitive information.

2. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this Policy is to establish standards of conduct for all Directors, Rating Committee members and employees of the RAM Group for the purpose of investment and trading of securities. This Policy aims to:

- (a) Discourage Directors, Rating Committee members and employees from using Privileged Information for their own direct or indirect personal gain;
- (b) Prevent any potential adverse repercussions of a regulatory and/or financial nature arising from situations where there is potential of conflict of interest; and
- (c) Safeguard the reputation of RAM Group.

3. DEFINITIONS

In this Policy, the definitions of key terms are as follows:

“Board of Directors” means collectively, the Board of Directors of RAM Holdings Berhad and RAM Rating Services Berhad;
